Vendor Guidelines

- This is an outdoor venue, and there will be no wi-fi available.
- No outside raffles or draws permitted
- Vendors can arrive beginning at 8:00 am or after, but must be set up no later than 10:30 am on both Saturday and Sunday.
- Tear down no later than 5:00 pm on Sunday, May 28, 2023.
- Register on-site at the Vendor registration booth when you arrive. All vendors are allowed to set up any way they choose as long as it fits in the allocated 10 x 10 space.
- Return the signed registration form to Gabriel Pangowish, at odawapowwow@odawa.on.ca or call (613) 614-9730 if you have any questions, comments or concerns.
- Only low noise generators are allowed to be used on site.

Please read and select the following boxes. If any are empty, we cannot accept your registration.

I understand that neither the ONFC nor the Canadian Police College are responsible for damages, stolen articles belonging to vendors, or personal injuries to vendors or their helpers during this event. No Drugs or Alcohol are allowed inside the grounds at any time can or this can result in immediate removal.

I understand that registration will be accepted once the Registration Form has been completed, returned and payment has been made.

By checking this box, I agree that I have read, understand and will adhere to the vendor guidelines.

44th Annual Traditional Pow Wow Instructions for Vendors

All vendors will have access to the Canadian Police College to unload and load their equipment and wares. Once unloaded, you can then move your vehicle to park off-site.

Vendors will have access on Sandridge Road and Donald Stackhouse at the access-controlled parking to unload and load any items needed.
